Complaints and Dispute Resolution Policy

Introduction

In this Complaints and Dispute Resolution Policy the use of “we”, “our”, “us” or “360” means 360 Underwriting Solutions Pty Ltd and its subsidiaries, related entities and Authorised Representatives.

We will always do our best to provide you the highest level of service but if we haven't met your expectations or you do not agree with a decision we have made, please tell us.

You can make a complaint about any aspect of your relationship with us, including your policy or claim and our service, staff or handling of a complaint.

We aim to resolve your complaint as quickly as possible and will keep you informed as to the progress of your complaint.

This Policy contains ten (10) sections. These sections describe our complaints and dispute resolution process for 360 and/or the insurer relevant to your complaint.

Please read the section that is relevant to your complaint carefully.

For further information about complaints, please see the Part 11 of the General Insurance Code of Practice (available at www.insurancecouncil.com.au/cop/) or contact us for further details:

Section A: 360 and its service providers

This section covers complaints about 360 and its service providers, such as such as investigators, loss adjusters, assessors, surveyors, collection agents or recovery specialists.

In the event you have a complaint, we will follow the procedures below:

1. Talk to us: The first thing to do is contact us about your concerns:

Internal Dispute Resolutions Team

Telephone. 1800 411 580 (freecall)
Email. idr@360uw.com.au
Post. Attention IDR Officer

Our consultants will try to resolve complaints at first contact or shortly thereafter. If we are unable to do so, we may refer you to a manager (or you can ask to speak to a manager yourself). The consultant or manager will attempt to respond and resolve your complaint as soon as possible. If they require more information, they will let you know. They will make a decision about your complaint within thirty (30) calendar days. When lodging a complaint, please provide us with your claim or policy number (as applicable) and as much information as you can about the reason for your complaint.

If we resolve your complaint to your satisfaction within five (5) business days, and you have not requested that we provide you a response in writing, we are not required to provide a written response. This exemption does not apply to complaints regarding a declined claim, the value of a claim, or about financial hardship.

We will keep you informed of the progress of your complaint at least every ten (10) business days, unless it is resolved earlier or you agree to a different timeframe.

To the extent allowable at law, if you request copies of the information we relied on to make a decision about your complaint, we must provide it within ten (10) business days of your request.

2. Seek an external review: We expect our procedures will deal fairly and promptly with your complaint. If you are unhappy with the decision made by us you may wish to seek an external review, such as referring the issue to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). AFCA provides fair and independent financial services complaint resolution that is free to customers. AFCA has authority to hear certain complaints. AFCA will confirm if they can assist you:

Our consultants will try to resolve complaints at first contact or shortly thereafter. If we are unable to do so, we may refer you to a manager (or you can ask to speak to a manager yourself). The consultant or manager will attempt to respond and resolve your complaint as soon as possible. If they require more information, they will let you know. They will aim to respond within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of your complaint. When lodging a complaint, please provide us with your claim or policy number (as applicable) and as much information as you can about the reason for your complaint.

- 2. IAG Customer Relations: If we can't resolve your complaint to your satisfaction within fifteen (15) calendar days, we will escalate your complaint to IAG's Customer Relations department who will make a decision in relation to your complaint within a further fifteen (15) calendar days (and not exceeding a total of thirty (30) calendar days from when you first made your complaint to us). You can also contact IAG's Customer Relations department directly:

Acerta will acknowledge your complaint within one (1) business day, either verbally or in writing.

Acerta will take reasonable steps to investigate your complaint. This includes an assessment of the circumstances you have told them about, and where required, they will obtain further information.

Acerta will aim to resolve your complaint within five (5) business days, however, there may be times when the investigation and assessment of your complaint could take longer than five (5) business days. If this occurs, they will aim to resolve your complaint within thirty (30) days.

If Acerta is unable to resolve your complaint within thirty (30) days, they will explain why, and what the revised timeframe is, and about your right to take your complaint to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority and its contact details.

Acerta will keep you informed of the progress of your complaint at least every ten (10) business days.

Depending on the circumstances of your complaint, Acerta will provide you with an outcome either orally or in writing. A written outcome will be provided in the following instances:

- a. If your complaint takes longer than five (5) days to resolve;
- b. If you request a written response;
- c. If your complaint is about financial hardship;
- d. If your complaint is about a declined insurance claim or the value of an insurance claim;
- e. If the outcome of the complaint is not to your satisfaction.

Where a written outcome is required, Acerta will aim to provide this to you as quickly as possible and within the maximum thirty (30) days timeframe.

If Acerta cannot resolve your complaint to your satisfaction, then they will provide you with the reason and the information they used to reach their decision.

3. Seek an external review: You may refer your complaint to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA), if your complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction within thirty (30) calendar days of the date on which you first made your complaint or at any time. In order to address your concerns Adica needs to be made aware of the issues you are dealing with, so firstly please contact Adica and explain the problems you are facing. Adica trained staff will try to resolve the problems you are facing at your initial point of contact.

Adica also has a dedicated team of resolution consultants that are experienced and knowledgeable in helping you to seek a positive outcome to the concerns that you are facing. At any time, you may request for your complaint to be handled directly by the Customer Resolution Team. If your concern is not resolved at the initial point of contact, your complaint will automatically be escalated to the Customer Resolution Team.

Adica will acknowledge your complaint within twenty-four (24) hours. You will be provided with the name and contact details of the person assisting with your concerns. Adica will be transparent, clear and available to you throughout the process.

They will keep you updated as to the progress of your complaint every ten (10) business days.

Adica aim to resolve your concern within twenty-one (21) calendar days, however, they may take a maximum of thirty (30) calendar days in seeking to resolve your complaint and provide you a decision.

In rare circumstances, Adica may take longer than thirty (30) calendar days if they are unable to make a decision as a result of factors outside of their control. In such circumstances, Adica will advise you the reason for the delay and further options available to you.

If your complaint is resolved within five (5) business days, Adica will not respond to you in writing unless you ask them to or if your complaint relates to financial hardship, a declined claim or the value of a claim.

In all other circumstances, Adica will provide you with a written response addressing the concerns you are facing, the steps we have taken to address the concerns, the reasoning for any decision made and the options available to you if you do not accept the decision.

3. Seek an external review: You may refer your complaint to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA), if your complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction within thirty (30) calendar days of the date on which you first made your complaint or at any time.
